November 2014

San Diego Train Run filled the day with a memorable ride along the scenic coast while having a chef prepare a special meal for all of us. The staff attended to our every need from the moment we stepped aboard until we alighted upon our return. Judy seemed to be lost in a far away land as she watched the waves. Gary inspected the expanse of the downstairs cabin while we remained in the viewing section above. The only reason for the photo of the MG TD is to be sure to include some car content in this publication. I presumed that it was waiting to be loaded onto our train too. Oh, I'm told that we were in a restored 1957 Burlington rail car named Silver Splendor. Some talked of planning a trip to Santa Barbara or even Chicago. Your thoughts?

Scott and Chris Couchman hosted the event. Besides Judy McCartney and Gary Hirschberg, attendees were Greg & Mary Jane Ford, Cindy & Bill Harris, Mike & Rosie King, Phyllis & Rod Kunishige and, of course Gayle Huff. Ask any of them for the history of this fancy ride. Finally, Kathy and John Buckman joined us for a walking tour of SD Italian section and an afternoon snack.

Special Notice - the Christmas Party will be a bit late for the Toy drive. The Marines have changed the date of their pickup to Saturday just before our Sunday party.

Sam Rosman Life Celebration is now tentatively scheduled for January 31st. Details to follow. Please mark your calendars.
