July 2016

POCA saw the resignations of both the Profiles and Newsletter Editors last month in a dispute over who is to maintain editorial control over on content as explained in the last Newsletter by Jack DeRyke. The Board made clear its decision in a 5:4 vote. The mandate issued unilaterally by the President in May created a huge conflict that necessitated a Board vote. As the editor here, I fully understand the position and support them both.

Laurie has now resigned from the post of Profiles Editor as of July 20, 2016.

The Newsletter post remains unfilled as of this writing. It will be unusually difficult to meet the standards set by Jack over his 21 years of superb service. Added to the matter of quality is the POCA By-laws obligation to produce a newsletter each and every month. I have looked forward to it every month and will sorely miss it.

Let me point out that POCA is also required to have a slate of candidates in the July Newsletter for the coming election. Looks like we will have a string of vacant offices next year. Please be a candidate if you have the time.

Auto Driving Museum El Segunda on the 23rd is our next event. See Bill Wright billwright@socal.rr.com for details.

Jack DeRyke's Article is now posted on our site. It is the Technical Section of www.ocPanteras.com. You are invited to enjoy his perspective but do respect his copyright standing. Thank you Jack.
